

SNJM Stories

Immigration Rally at the Supreme Court

Sisters of the Holy Names gathered with thousands of others at the Supreme Court to support moral rights of immigrant families. To see more photos, go to:

<https://www.flickr.com/photos/121511644@N04/sets/72157667232061526>

Sisters Carroll Ann Kemp, Frances Barber and Carol Ries with friends at the immigration rally.

Photo credit: NETWORK Lobby.

In This Issue

- SNJM Stories
- Celebrating SNJM Ministries
- On the Province Website

Quick Links

SNJM U.S.-Ontario Province Website

Find us on Facebook:

Join our Mailing List!

Sister Miriam Daniel Fahey Honored

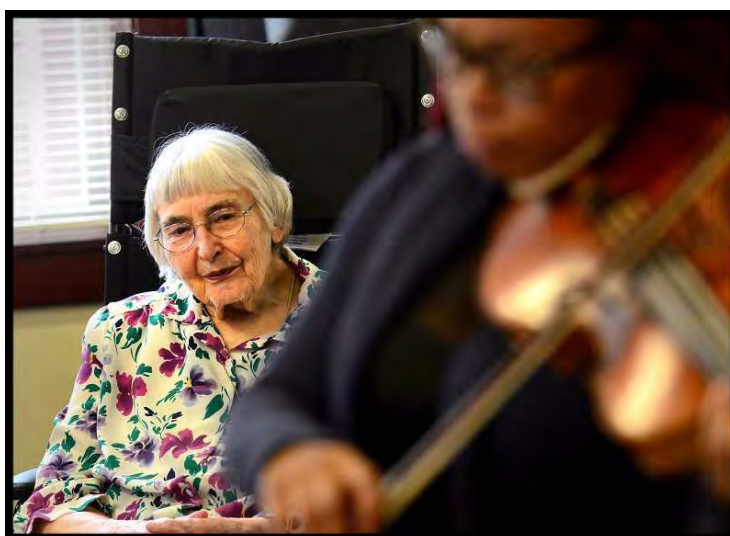

At the dedication of the Catholic Charities community education center in San Jose, CA, Sister Miriam Daniel Fahey was honored for her work in the neighborhood. Santee neighborhood leaders, longtime friends and civic dignitaries including the mayor and district superintendent were among those present. Sr. Miriam Daniel was recognized for her commitment to education, social justice and pastoral work in the Santee neighborhood throughout her 15 years of service there. Lovingly known as "Hermana Miriam," she leaves a legacy of commitment and a passion for justice that continues to inspire leaders and community members today.

L-R: Greg Kepferle, CEO of Catholic Charities Santa Clara County; Miriam Daniel Fahey, SNJM; and Rev. Francisco Ríos, pastor of Our Lady of Refuge Parish, San Jose, CA.

Oregon Symphony Musicians Perform for Mary's Woods Residents

As a part of the Music Now program, musicians from the Oregon Symphony play their instruments for Mary's Woods residents including Sisters of the Holy Names. The music program is interactive, inviting residents to play along with some simple instruments. Read more and see photos at: <http://www.pamplinmedia.com/lor/54-my-community/302999-179758-smiling-faces-show-impact-of-music-now>

Sister Mary Angela Morbeck listens to viola performance.
Photo credit: Vern Uyetake.

Celebrating SNJM Ministries

Sister Pat Mills Visits Theology Students at AHN, Albany

Academy of the Holy Names, Albany junior theology students recently enjoyed a special visit with Sister Pat Mills. They spent time together talking about developing a personal relationship with God.

Pat Mills, SNJM with AHN, Albany theology students.

AHN Tampa Junior Honored as Young Woman of Promise

The Athena Society recently honored Academy of the Holy Names, Tampa junior Elizabeth Dolan as a 2016 Young Woman of Promise. She founded a non-profit, Cross Out Cancer, to raise money for needy families whose children battle cancer at Johns Hopkins All Children's Hospital.

Read more at: <http://www.tampabay.com/news/hooper-athenas-young-women-of-promise-already-making-their-mark/2273186>

Elizabeth Dolan. Photo credit: Monica Herndon.

SMA Science Olympiad Team Wins State Championship

St. Mary's Academy, Portland won its eighth Oregon Science Olympiad championship. Three teams represented the school at the competition placing first, fourth and fifth overall. The varsity team will now go on to represent Oregon at the Science Olympiad National Tournament in May. They are the only all-girls team in Oregon. Read more at:

<http://www.stmaryspdx.org/cms/One.aspx?portalId=1524057&pageId=26709428>

SMA Science Olympiad team.

On the Province Website

Meet Carol Higgins, SNJM

Learn about how Sister Carol found her vocation as a Holy Names Sister:

<http://snimusontario.org/who-we-are/meet-our-sisters>

This is the newsletter of Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary, U.S.-Ontario Province for our partners in mission and ministry.

Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary
U.S.-Ontario Province

Please send questions and comments about this newsletter to info@snjmuson.org.